Air-Inlet - check with applicable local codes for acceptable pipe material.

Exhaust venting must be supported to reduce strain on piping joints. Failure to follow these instructions may result in result in damage, serious injury or death.

In Canada, the first 3 ft (915 mm) of vent piping must be readily accessible for inspection.